Andria Livingston

Owner - Edenology

My name is Andria Lynn, and I am on an incredible journey sharing the ancient wisdom of Food, Energy Work and Holistic modalities as Medicine. I offer holistic healing arts to address 'Panema' (emotional illness), restoring the body, mind & soul to its innate state of balance.

EDENOLOGY as a space to Reframe Nutrition for clients as a Certified Functional Nutritional Coach with a focus on Holistic & Alternative healing modalities & medicines. My practice is my passion and bringing healing to your life with these tools will improve the way you feel & support you for the rest of your life journey. I love to feed people both figuratively & literally. Functional Nutrition and Soul Medicine are important modules in any stage of achieving wellness. I help you uncover root causes of health/soul challenges & support positive lifestyle changes, bridging the gap between Western Medicine & Ancient Wisdom.
